Pictures will be taken of all students for student ID cards. This includes the seniors. If you want to purchase pictures, you can do so by order form or online. Forms are available in the main office. Pictures of staff will be taken beginning at 7:45 a.m. Pictures of students will be taken starting at 8:15.

Tomorrow will be a non-uniform day. All students, including seniors, are expected to wear nice “dress” clothing appropriate for pictures. Acceptable clothing includes: khaki, clean, non-tattered jeans or dress pants, polo, rugby, or button-down shirts, sweaters, blouses, dresses or skirts of school uniform length, and dress shoes. Students may not wear shorts (other than Khaki uniform), t-shirts, sweatshirts/hoodies, spaghetti straps, short tops with bare midriffs, short skirts, sweatpants, yoga pants, sagging pants, or gym shoes. Uniforms will be required beginning Monday, August 16. Every Friday is Routt Spirit Day! Any Routt spirit wear may be worn on top along with uniform pants, socks and shoes. Hoodies are not allowed during the school day. If in doubt whether what you plan to wear is acceptable, please ASK!

Reminder to students – if you are having trouble with your laptop, please email Mr. Martin at help@routtcatholic.com. If you are unable to email, please come to the office and one of us will email him for you.
